

CONSTITUTION OF THE CHARITY NAMED BELOW, AN UNINCORPORATED MEMBERS ASSOCIATION AND A MEMBER OF THE THIRD AGE TRUST

THIS IS A CHARITY IN ENGLAND AND WALES

REGISTERED CHARITY NUMBER*: 1035678

This constitution was adopted by the membership at the Extraordinary General Meeting held on:

September 6th 2017

I certify that this is a true copy

Signed

R N Thomas

Chairman

Date of Certification

September 18th 2017

1. NAME

The name of the charity is St Albans U3A, hereinafter referred to as "The U3A".

2. PROPERTY AND ASSETS

Subject to the matters set out below, The U3A and its property and other assets shall be administered and managed in accordance with this constitution, by the members of the Executive Committee.

3. CHARITABLE PURPOSES

The charitable purposes of The U3A are:

to advance education and in particular the education of people not in full time gainful employment who are in their Third Age (being the period of time after the first age of childhood dependence and the second age of full time employment and/or parental responsibility) residing in St Albans and its surrounding locality;

the provision of facilities for leisure-time and recreational activities with the object of improving the conditions of life for the above persons in the interests of their social welfare.

In this constitution "people in their Third Age" has the meaning set out above.

4. POWERS

In furtherance of the charitable purposes but not otherwise, the Executive Committee may exercise powers:

- i. to raise funds and to invite and receive contributions for The U3A by any lawful means, provided that in doing so any applicable requirements of the law shall be met;
- ii. to receive donations, gifts, endowments, sponsorship, grants, legacies and subscriptions from persons desiring to support The U3A and its charitable purposes and to hold and apply any funds so acquired for the charitable purposes (subject to any restricted funds being applied to the relevant restricted purposes);
- iii. to buy, take on lease or in exchange or otherwise acquire, hold and make use of any property (real or personal);
- iv. to sell, lease or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property of The U3A, subject to any consents required by law;
- v. to co-operate with other charities, voluntary bodies and statutory authorities;
- vi. to support any charitable organisation with regard to the pursuit of The U3A's charitable purposes;
- vii. to appoint and constitute such advisory committees as the Executive Committee may think fit;
- viii. to organise, promote and participate in conferences, lectures, seminars, courses and educational or recreational events;
- ix. to publish, supply and make available books, pamphlets, reports, leaflets, journals, instructional matter, educational materials and aids of all kinds, whether in printed, electronic or any other form;
- x. to associate and collaborate with other U3As and groupings of U3As (such as regional associations and networks) and The Third Age Trust in any way;
- xi. to do all such other lawful things as are appropriate to the pursuit of the charitable purposes and the delivery of benefit to the public in accordance with the charitable purposes.

In exercising the above powers, the Executive Committee shall act in good faith at all times for the benefit of the membership as a whole, abide by the Trustee Code of Conduct, and have regard to any advice issued by the Third Age Trust.

5. MEMBERSHIP

- i. Membership of The U3A shall be open to individuals who are in their Third Age and are interested in participating in and furthering the work of The U3A, provided that they agree to abide by this constitution and any membership conditions properly imposed by the Executive Committee and to pay the annual subscription as determined by the Executive Committee and approved by the membership at an Annual General Meeting. No individual may be admitted to membership if the Executive Committee considers that they do not meet these conditions.
- ii. Members are bound by and shall observe any membership conditions and any disciplinary code of The U3A.
- iii. The Executive Committee may terminate the membership of any individual:
 - if annual membership or other fees are unpaid 1 Month after the due date;or
 - by way of expulsion at the end of a disciplinary procedure for breach of any membership condition, breach of any disciplinary code of The U3A, or any action which brings the U3A into disrepute, having regard to any advice published by the Third Age Trust.

Provided that in the case of proposed expulsion at the end of a disciplinary procedure, the individual concerned shall have the right to be heard by the Executive Committee, accompanied by a friend acting in their personal capacity who may also speak, or to make written representation before a final decision is made.

6. HONORARY PRESIDENT

The members of The U3A may (but do not have to) elect an Honorary President at the Annual General Meeting. If they do so, the person so appointed will serve until the next Annual General Meeting. A retiring Honorary President may be re-appointed for a further term. There is no limit on the number of terms that may be served. The Honorary President shall not be deemed a charity trustee and shall not be a member of the Executive Committee but may be invited to attend any Executive Committee meeting at the decision of the Executive Committee and shall be entitled to attend the Annual General Meeting as a guest.

7. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND OFFICERS

- i. The management of The U3A shall be vested in an Executive Committee, which shall be the governing body of The U3A and its board of trustees for the purposes of charity law. The Executive Committee shall be responsible for the strategy and policies of The U3A, may exercise all the powers of The U3A and shall deal with the administration, management and control of the affairs and property of The U3A.
- ii. There must be at least 6 and not more than 12 U3A members appointed to the Executive Committee. No person may be proposed for appointment or serve as a member of the Executive Committee if they are not already a member of The U3A or if they are serving as an Officer or non-Officer member of the Executive Committee of any other U3A.
- iii. Officers

The Officers are the Chairman, not more than two Vice Chairmen, Treasurer and Secretary. The Officers shall by virtue of holding their office be members of the Executive Committee. An individual may only serve in one Officer role at a time.
- iv. Appointment of Officers

At every Annual General Meeting of The U3A, the serving Officers shall all retire from office and the members shall elect from amongst the membership individuals to serve as the Officers. A retiring Officer may be re-appointed subject to the limits on length of service set out below.

v. Appointment of Other Members of the Executive Committee

At every Annual General Meeting of The U3A the serving non-Officer members of the Executive Committee shall all retire and the members shall elect from amongst the membership individuals to serve as the Committee members. A retiring Executive Committee member may be re-appointed subject to the limits on length of service set out below.

vi. Limits on Length of Service

- a) A term of office for any individual elected to the Executive Committee is the period from the date of the AGM at which they are elected until the close of the next AGM or, if earlier, the date on which they cease to be a member of the Executive Committee. Periods of service other than by election will be disregarded.
- b) An individual may serve not more than three consecutive terms as a non-Officer member of the Executive Committee or in the same Officer role other than as Treasurer.
- c) An individual may serve not more than six consecutive terms as Treasurer and may not then be appointed to any other Officer role. For the avoidance of doubt, if an individual serves less than six terms as Treasurer, that person could then serve in another Officer role for the balance of the six terms or for three successive terms, whichever is the shorter.
- d) An individual may serve not more than six terms in aggregate in different Officer roles.
- e) No member may serve on the Executive Committee for more than nine terms in aggregate.

vii. Nomination and Election of Candidates

Prior written nomination of any candidate for appointment as an Officer or a non-Officer member of the Executive Committee at an Annual General Meeting shall normally be required, formally proposed by two members of The U3A (not being themselves Officers or non-Officer members of the Executive Committee), to be in the hands of the Secretary of The U3A at least 35 days before the meeting.

Should nominations exceed vacancies, the decision about appointments shall be taken by ballot. Otherwise, nominations of candidates and the conduct of voting for appointments shall be dealt with in accordance with the Standing Orders of The U3A or the Third Age Trust or, if there are no Standing Orders, as determined by the Executive Committee.

However, if there are insufficient candidates standing for the vacancies, the Chairman of the meeting may, as a last resort, appeal for any willing member present to agree to stand. A vote must be taken and carried by a simple majority for such an appeal for volunteers at the meeting to be permitted. Any willing candidates may then offer themselves and be proposed to the meeting for appointment in accordance with the Constitution.

viii. Casual Vacancies and Co-options

The Executive Committee may fill any position becoming vacant amongst the Officers or the non-Officer Executive Committee members, until the following Annual General Meeting.

The Executive Committee may in addition appoint not more than two co-opted members of the Executive Committee, who shall have full voting rights and hold office until the next Annual General Meeting.

An individual cannot be brought into the Executive Committee under these provisions more than three times in succession.

8. DEFECTS IN APPOINTMENTS

The proceedings of the Executive Committee shall not be invalidated by any vacancy among their number or by any failure to appoint or any defect in the appointment, election or co-option of a member.

9. CESSATION OF OFFICE – EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEMBERS

A member of the Executive Committee shall cease to hold office if that person:

- a) is disqualified from acting as a member of the Executive Committee by virtue of charity law;
- b) becomes incapable by reason of illness, injury or mental disorder of managing and administering his or her own affairs;
- c) is absent without the permission of the Executive Committee from three consecutive meetings and the Executive Committee resolve that the office be vacated;
- d) is removed by resolution of the Executive Committee for significant misconduct under the Trustee Code of Conduct, which may only be passed after the completion of the disciplinary procedure set out in that Code;
- e) notifies in writing to the Executive Committee a wish to resign (but only if at least five members of the Executive Committee will remain in office when the notice of resignation is to take effect which shall be at least 21 days from the receipt of the notification);
- f) ceases to be a member of The U3A;
- g) becomes an Officer or non-Officer member of the Executive Committee of any other U3A.

10. MEETINGS AND PROCEEDINGS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

- i. The Executive Committee shall hold at least 4 meetings each year.
- ii. Additional meetings may be called at any time by the Secretary on behalf of the Chairman or by any two members of the Executive Committee, upon not less than seven days' notice being given to other members of the Executive Committee of the matters to be discussed, unless it concerns the appointment of a co-opted member, in which case not less than twenty one days' notice must be given.
- iii. The Chairman or, in the absence of the Chairman, a Vice Chairman shall chair the meetings. If neither the Chairman nor a Vice Chairman is present, the Executive Committee shall choose one of their number to be Chairman of the meeting before any business is transacted.
- iv. There shall be a quorum when at least one-third of the number of members of the Executive Committee or three members of the Executive Committee, whichever is the greater, are present at the meeting.
- v. Every decision shall be determined by a majority of votes of the members of the Executive Committee present and voting on the question, but in the case of equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall have an additional casting vote.
- vi. The Executive Committee shall ensure that minutes are taken of all its meetings and those of any sub-committees and are available should a member request it.
- vii. The Executive Committee may from time to time make and alter rules for the conduct of their business, the summoning and conduct of their meetings and custody of documents (including, but not limited to, the use of electronic communications). No rule may be made which is inconsistent with this constitution.
- viii. The Executive Committee may appoint sub-committees which shall include at least one member of the Executive Committee, for the purpose of performing any function or duty which in the opinion of the Executive Committee would be more conveniently undertaken or carried out by a sub-committee, provided that all acts and proceedings of any sub-committees shall be fully and promptly reported to the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall authorise the terms of reference of sub-committees and may alter them from time to time. Sub-committees may make proposals to the Executive Committee, but may not make decisions or have any expenditure authority other than that detailed in their Terms of Reference.

- ix. No Executive Committee member shall be chargeable or responsible for loss caused by any act done or omitted to be done by that member or by any other Executive Committee member or by reason of any mistake or omission made in good faith by any Executive Committee member or by reason of any other matter other than wilful and individual fraud or wrongdoing or actions knowingly beyond the scope of a specific authority or limit thereon on the part of the Executive Committee member in question.

11. FINANCE

- i. The financial year of The U3A shall end on such date as the Executive Committee shall decide, provided always that the financial year must be in accordance with applicable charity law requirements and the annual accounts and trustees' report must be submitted to the Charity Commission within relevant statutory time limits.
- ii. The funds of The U3A shall be paid into such accounts as the Executive Committee may open in the name of The U3A. All transactions on such accounts shall be carried out in accordance with the terms of that account as agreed with the account provider and approved and accepted by the Executive Committee from time to time. Only members of the Executive Committee, when authorised by the Executive Committee to do so, may arrange and authorise any transaction on any of The U3As accounts and at least dual authorisation shall be required for all transactions except where the Executive Committee decides otherwise in any specific cases.
- iii. The Executive Committee shall determine the financial controls and procedures to be followed by The U3A, including but not limited to, controls and procedures in relation to accounts and transactions on them, and those shall be observed at all times.
- iv. The funds belonging to The U3A shall be applied only in furthering the charitable purposes.
- v. No funds shall be transferred to, or benefit in kind received by, Executive Committee members, provided that nothing herein shall prevent the payment in good faith of reasonable and proper out of pocket expenses incurred by a member of the Executive Committee in the discharge of duties for The U3A or retention of token gifts from U3A members.
- vi. All proper costs, charges and expenses incidental to the management of The U3A and membership subscriptions in respect of the Third Age Trust may be defrayed from the funds of The U3A.

12. PROPERTY

- i. All property of and held on behalf of The U3A shall be applied in accordance with charity law.
- ii. Title to any property shall be held on behalf of The U3A in such manner as the Executive Committee thinks fit from time to time and in ways permitted by charity law.

13. ACCOUNTING AND REPORTING

The Executive Committee shall comply with its obligations under charity law, and observe applicable time limits in the case of obligations to file items with the Charity Commission, with regard to:

- a) the keeping of accounting records for The U3A;
- b) the preparation of annual statements of account and a trustees' report for The U3A;
- c) the audit or independent examination of the statements of account of The U3A;
- d) the making of a charity annual return to the Charity Commission;

- e) the transmission of the statement of accounts and trustees' report of The U3A to the Charity Commission.

14. ANNUAL GENERAL MEETINGS

- i. There shall be an Annual General Meeting of The U3A which shall be held on such date as the Executive Committee may determine in each calendar year. The date of the AGM and the timetable leading up to it shall be published to members as early in the year as reasonably practicable.
- ii. Every Annual General Meeting shall be called by the Executive Committee. This formal notice shall give at least 21 days' notice of the Annual General Meeting to all the members of The U3A. The notice shall specify that the meeting is the Annual General Meeting and shall set out the business of the meeting, including motions to be proposed, and shall provide information about proposals for the election of Officers and non-Officer members of the Executive Committee to be made at that meeting. All members of The U3A shall be entitled to attend and vote at the meeting.
- iii. The Executive Committee shall present to each Annual General Meeting the trustees' report and annual accounts of The U3A for the preceding year.
- iv. The Executive Committee shall seek approval from the membership for the appointment of an independent examiner or auditor for the accounts at the Annual General Meeting.

15. EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETINGS

The Executive Committee may call an Extraordinary General Meeting of The U3A at any time and if at least 15% of the members request such a meeting in writing stating the business to be considered, the Secretary shall call such a meeting. At least 21 days notice shall be given. The notice shall set out the business of the meeting including motions to be proposed.

16. NOTICES, COMMUNICATIONS AND PROCEDURE AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- i. Notices of meetings, documents and other communications from The U3A to a member may be sent by electronic communication provided The U3A wishes to do so and the relevant member wishes to receive them in this way and provides an appropriate electronic address to The U3A. It is the responsibility of that member to notify The U3A of any change to that address and to comply with any security and other procedures determined by the Executive Committee for such communications. A member may opt to return to hard copy communications at any time.
- ii. Accidental omission to give notice to any member of any General Meeting (including the AGM) shall not invalidate the proceedings.
- iii. The Secretary or other person specially appointed by the Executive Committee shall keep a full record of proceedings at every General Meeting of The U3A.
- iv. There shall be a quorum when at least 100 current members of The U3A are present at any General Meeting.
- v. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting if convened at the request of the members shall be dissolved. In any other case it shall be adjourned to another day and time as the Executive Committee may direct provided 21 days' notice is given to all members. If at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour of the time appointed for the meeting, the members present shall be a quorum.
- vi. If present, the Chairman of The U3A shall be the Chairman of any General Meeting. In the absence of the entitled Chairman, a Vice Chairman shall chair the meetings. If neither the Chairman nor a Vice Chairman is present the Executive Committee members present shall have the power to elect a Chairman for the meeting.
- vii. Every individual member shall have one vote at General Meetings.

viii. If there is a tied vote the Chairman of the meeting shall have an additional casting vote.

17. ALTERATIONS TO THE CONSTITUTION

- i. Subject to the following provisions of this clause, the Constitution may be altered in any way by a resolution passed by not less than two thirds of the members present and voting at a General Meeting. The notice of the General Meeting must include notice of the resolution, setting out the details of the alterations proposed.
- ii. The prior consent of the Third Age Trust must be requested for any proposed alterations to The U3A's constitution. The U3A may proceed with the proposed changes:
 - a) at any time after specific consent has been received from the Third Age Trust;or
 - b) when four weeks have passed since the consent request was delivered and the Third Age Trust has not notified The U3A of any objection to the proposals.
- iii. No amendment may be made to clause 3 (the charitable purposes) without the prior consent in writing of the Charity Commission.
- iv. No amendment may be made which would have the effect of making The U3A cease to be a charity.
- v. The Executive Committee shall ensure a copy of any amendment made under this clause is promptly sent to the Charity Commission.

18. DISSOLUTION

- i. If the Executive Committee decides that it is necessary or advisable to dissolve The U3A it shall call an Extraordinary General Meeting of all members of The U3A, of which not less than 21 days' notice (stating the terms of the resolution to be proposed) shall be given. If the proposal is confirmed by a two-thirds majority of those present and voting, the Executive Committee shall have power to realise any assets held by or on behalf of The U3A. Any assets remaining after the satisfaction of any proper debts and liabilities shall be given or transferred to:
 - a) any one or more local U3As, which are charities and have charitable purposes similar to those of The U3A, as determined by the members of The U3A;or
 - b) to the Third Age Trust (registered charity in England and Wales no. 288007).
- ii. A copy of the statement of accounts and relevant reports, for the final accounting period of The U3A, must be sent to the Charity Commission.
