Poetry Evening: 'Then felt I like some watcher of the skies'

Tuesday 29 October, 8-9.30pm, £10

Discover how the vastness and unending nature of space has led poets to consider the divine creating force. Can Creation give understanding and insight into the nature of a Creator?

Reaching for God: Beethoven and Faith

Thursday 21 November, 7.30-9.45pm, £12.50 (incl. a glass of wine)

This evening blends live music, images and a talk to explore Beethoven's spiritual vision through his piano music.

Dickens and Spirituality

Monday 2 December, 7.30-9pm, £10

Explore the surprising and often contradictory aspects of Dickens's faith and personal life in this talk, which also asks why the ghosts of spirituality keep recurring in his writing.

Quiet Day: Icons and Symbols of Faith

Saturday 12 October, 10am-3.30pm, £25

For centuries, Christians have used different images to aid both their personal and corporate faith journeys. This Quiet Day explores how icons or symbols might be helpful or significant for us today, and offers an opportunity for creative response.

Tickets available from the Cathedral Box Office.
